If you come across an emergency situation when someone has had an _____ or has been _____, as a first aider you must quickly _____ the situation.

It is very important to find out what has happened. You must make sure that you remove any _____ to the _____, any _____ or to _____.

Never rush straight in to help, as you may make the situation worse if you do not realise the _____. For example, many people panic when they see an accident, run straight into the road and get themselves _____ by a passing car.

Once you are sure that there is no further danger, you should check the _____ from the casualty to decide if they are conscious or not. The appropriate _____ should then be applied.

Once you have gathered all the _____ you need, get _____.
